Emerging Leader Award

This award recognizes the efforts of emerging leaders at The University of Scranton. Award recipients should demonstrate that they have participated in experiences that have helped develop their leadership skills and that they have taken on roles in co-curricular activities that have increased their understanding of leadership development. Applicants must be in good academic standing, with a 2.5 cumulative grade point average, at the time of application, selection, and presentation of the award. A recipient may not be on disciplinary probation. More than one student can win this award.

Narrative

Please attach a narrative outlining why you think this individual should be considered for the Emerging Leader Award. Please include examples of how you feel this person has sought out opportunities to develop their leadership skills, has assumed roles in co-curricular activities that have increased their leadership capacities, or impacted their club or organization. This student should be a freshman or sophomore student.

All nominations are due to the Center for Student Engagement (DeNaples 205) by noon on April 8, 2013. Incomplete applications will not be considered. All applications will be reviewed by the awards committee. Please include the nomination form with your narrative. If you have any questions, please contact leadership@scranton.edu. * Excluding Student Government Senator of the Year, Outstanding Leadership in USPB, Residence Hall Association Leadership Award, Outstanding Peer Educator and Outstanding Leader in the Commuter Student Association.
