4. Liaison’s Report:
Ms. Day reposted that as a result of comments from Senate and others on campus the Take Your Daughter to Work committee has been reconvened. She said that 15 people attended the initial meeting. She added that anyone is interested in serving on the committee should contact Elaine Notarianni, in Human Resources.

Ms. Day encouraged everyone to attend Pedro Arrupe Award this Thursday.

Ms. Day also wished all the secretaries a Happy Administrative Assistants Day.

5. Presentation:
Mr. Barrett and his committee presented the findings of the Alternative Work Week Survey. He began by thanking the committee for all the hard work and time invested in the process.

Mr. Barrett outlined the committee work:

- Development of a Mission Statement
- Explored flexible hours
- Explored telecommuting
- Explored job sharing
- Looked at energy savings statics
- Explored how benefits would be affected
- Looked into how other institutions manage these programs

Mr. Barrett reported that the Committee recommends that the results of this survey be forwarded to the proper governing body for consideration of the implementation.

Senators will be sent a copy of the full report to review. It will be on the May meeting agenda. If the Senate agrees with the Committee’s recommendation it will then be presented to the UGC.

Mr. Murphy thanked Mr. Barrett and the committee for the great job they did in complying all the data. He said that it was balanced that both the pros and cons were presented.

The entire presentation is on the Staff Senate Website.
