

Bursting our Political Bubbles: A Dialogue Across Differences

Students from varied political perspectives and backgrounds are invited to engage and encounter each other's experiences and views — not debate or persuade — through structured dialogue sessions to build better understanding and seek areas of common ground.

- Having trouble discussing current affairs with friends and family?
- Overwhelmed by the tension and polarization in our current political climate?

For more information and background on the initiative visit: scranton.edu/dialogues

DIALOGUE SESSION DATES:

6:30-8:30 P.M.

FEB. 18 • Impeachment (& the 2020 Election)
Loyola Science Center #133

MARCH 11 • America's Role in the World
Kane Forum, Leahy Hall

APRIL 27 • Climate Change
VIRTUAL ZOOM SESSION

COME READY TO...

- Talk about the experiences, values, hopes and concerns that shape your political beliefs
- Learn to apply principles of Ignatian discernment and dialogue to listen and build understanding

Partners & Sponsors

Bursting our Political Bubbles is coordinated by the University's Political Dialogues Working Group comprised of several campus partner offices and departments and is made possible by a University Strategic Initiatives Grant.

Events are first come, first served. Registration is Required:
Contact 570-941-4419 or community@scranton.edu.

Refreshments will be served.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON
A JESUIT UNIVERSITY