SIXTEENTH (ALMOST) ANNUAL MEXICO STUDY/TRAVEL TOUR

3 weeks -- January 6 to January 26, 2014
Price: approximately $3150 per person, double occupancy, (single occupancy may be possible) with Mexican family.

University of Scranton Intersession tuition at 1/3 the normal price of $988 per credit, is additional. The total tuition charge for the 3 credits, then, is $988, 1/3 the normal price. The tuition charge will be billed separately by the Bursar’s office.

SPONSORED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON
DEPARTMENTS OF WORLD LANGUAGES AND POLITICAL SCIENCE
Led by Drs. Linda Ledford-Miller and Yamile Silva

The trip includes:

- Roundtrip transportation from Scranton to Newark airport on chartered bus
- Roundtrip airfare on a regularly scheduled United Airlines jet
- Transfer from Mexico City’s Benito Juárez International airport to private homes in the area of the Universidad Iberoamericana (La Ibero) in Puebla, Mexico
- 20 nights room and board (3 meals per day) with a Mexican family selected by the Office of Internationalization at La Ibero
- Half-day tour of historic Puebla and nearby Cholula, including the world-famous Cholula pyramid, museums and typical market places
- Weekend trip to the beautiful city of Oaxaca in southwestern Mexico
- Weekend trip to nearby megalopolis of Mexico City, including visits to the world-famous Anthropological Museum, Coyoacán, and the amazing pyramids of Teotihuacan
- 30 hours of instruction in Spanish by native speakers at Universidad Iberoamericana under the supervision of University of Scranton faculty
- 30 hours of instruction in contemporary Mexican culture and politics by full-time Ibero faculty with assistance of University of Scranton faculty
- Transfer from La Ibero to the Benito Juárez International airport in Mexico City for return trip
- All taxes and security charges

The group trips to Mexico City and Oaxaca are likely, but their viability depends on the number of students enrolled in the course.

Payment Deadlines:
Friday, October 11, 2013 ($1,150 deposit)
Friday, November 15, 2013 (Full Payment, balance of $2000)

Academic Credit: This study/tour is an academic course. Students register for and earn six credits, three in Spanish (for Intersession) and three in Political Science (for Spring semester). The courses are approved for academic credit in the Humanities and Social Sciences areas (or in the free area) of the University of Scranton’s general education curriculum. The courses also have Cultural Diversity credit. All academic requirements, including completion of assignments, attendance and participation in classes both La Ibero in Puebla and the University of Scranton, must be completed satisfactorily to ensure credit for the courses.

Note: Current enrollment in or the completion of Intermediate Spanish is an absolute prerequisite for this course; however, only very strong current intermediate students, with the recommendation of their Spanish professor, are accepted into the program. All intermediate level applicants will be interviewed in Spanish by the course directors to verify that their preparation is appropriate for this course. A prerequisite of current enrollment in or the completion of Spanish Conversation (SPAN 311) or a higher level Spanish course is strongly recommended.
