Call for Applications: Phi Epsilon Kappa

To: Senior Exercise Science Students

From: Dr. Joan Grossman

Re: Membership Application

Date: November 2, 2012

The Department of Exercise Science is seeking applications for membership in Phi Epsilon Kappa. Phi Epsilon Kappa is a national, professional fraternity for persons engaged in or pursuing a career in health, physical education, recreation or safety. Membership is designed to stimulate scholarship among the individual members and advance the field of exercise science. The University of Scranton’s local chapter name is Zeta Gamma.

Requirements

- A declared Exercise Science major at the University of Scranton
- An overall GPA of 3.3 or higher
- A GPA of 3.5 within Exercise Science courses

Application Information

- A completed application must be submitted to Dr. Joan Grossman, no later than 2:00 pm, Friday, November 16, 2012.

- Newly accepted students will receive notification of membership in late November, at which time, $65 must be submitted to Dr. Grossman by December 3rd. This cost includes, undergraduate dues and initiation fee ($55 – CHECK only – paid to: Phi Epsilon Kappa – for the national dues and $10 cash for local chapter dues).

- An induction ceremony will take place, prior to final exams, in December.
