

DIVERSITY FAIR 2009

PHOTOGRAPH BY
LEAH SUTHERLAND

Theresa, OED work study student, at Human Venture table.

Mexican Culture "Day of the Dead"

African Culture: Rwanda & Uganda

International students from Thailand happy to join the Fair!

Terrapyn Gifts

University Guest and friend
enjoying the day.

Native America

Religions of the World

University Guest gets a Henna tattoo from India

International students from India

NEPA Center for Independent Living "Project Able" obstacle course challenge

Deaf Culture

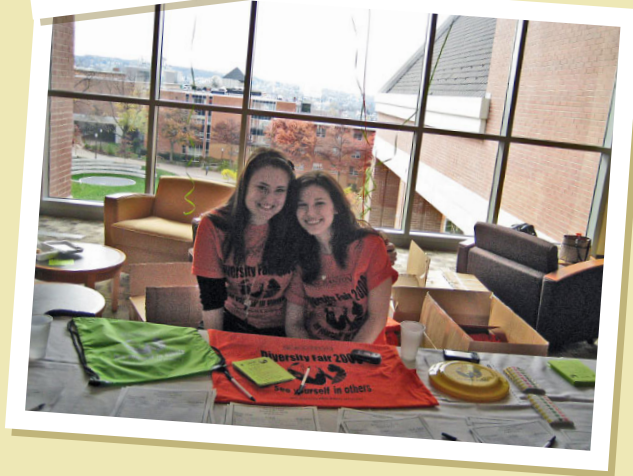

Scranton Inclusion LGBTQ

Sgt. William Meade, VFW
Scranton

Ashley and Alicia, OED work study.
Great job Girls!

Peter Potena is all smiles as he registers for his passport

Mother Earth

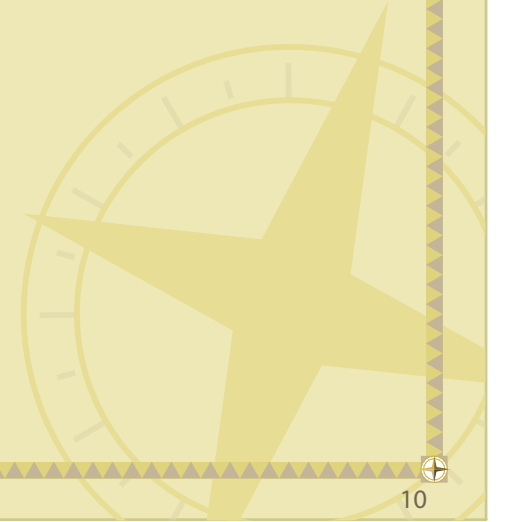

Jane Kopas Women's Cneter

International students
Korea

Marko Marcinko and the Latin Jazz Quintet

The crowd enjoys learning
how to salsa with Pedro!

Pedro Gonzalez, Director of the Latin Cultural Diversity
Center, and OED Staff:
Jennifer Pennington, and
Rosette Adera, Director

International student Japan

University Guest and friend enjoying the day.

NEPA Center for Independent Living: "Project Able"

Census 2010
A learning experience

Jamie Orfanella and
Tribal Waves

Mom, Aunt Ev, and Rosette with Jamaican Punch!

Dr. Allison and students present
El Salvador

Taking a quiz and stamping that Passport.

Enjoying Middle Eastern Dance

Attire from East India...so beautiful!

Balance is key

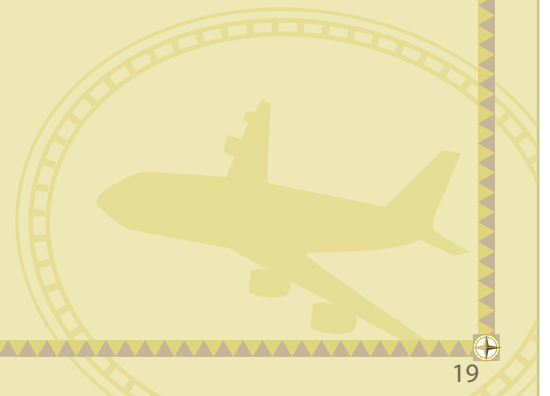

And making music too!

Happiness at the Diversity Fair!

Some help with her hat!

Fun!

Shake it!

The more, the merrier!

Don't forget about the multicultural
food, food, food!

Students represent Oman

El Salavador

Students learn about Native American culture

The Office of Equity and Diversity is full of information and hosts the BEST events!

Keith Williams, Scranton Alum, and Project Able. Great group!

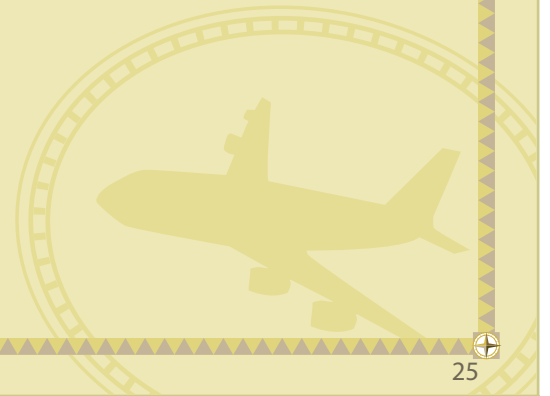

Rosette discusses African culture with students.

Excited about Indian culture

Welcome to Mexico! Olay!

We couldn't do it without our wonderful catering staff!

The Urban Beats rock the house.

THE FINALE!

