

The Place I Call Home
Exhibit, Book signing, Reception
March 15, 2011

Michael Knies, Library Archivist; Sondra Myers, Senior Fellow; Sherman F. Wooden, author and former Director of Multicultural Affairs; Rosette Adera, Director Office of Equity and Diversity.

Sondra Myers gives introduction

Rosette speaks of Sherman and Sondra

Sherman F. Wooden, honored.

Sherman F. Wooden served the University of Scranton in it's multicultural efforts for 19 years until retiring in 2009. We miss you!

Brothers, Thomas and Sherman Wooden.

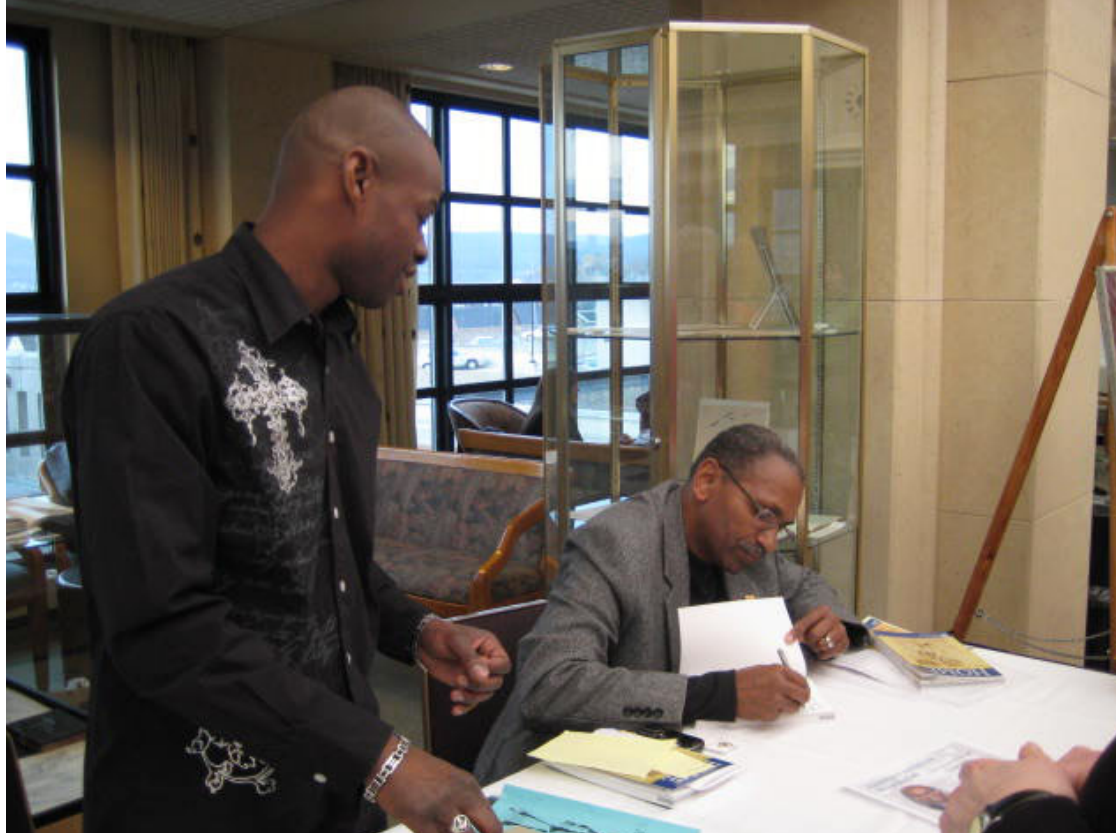

A life's work...

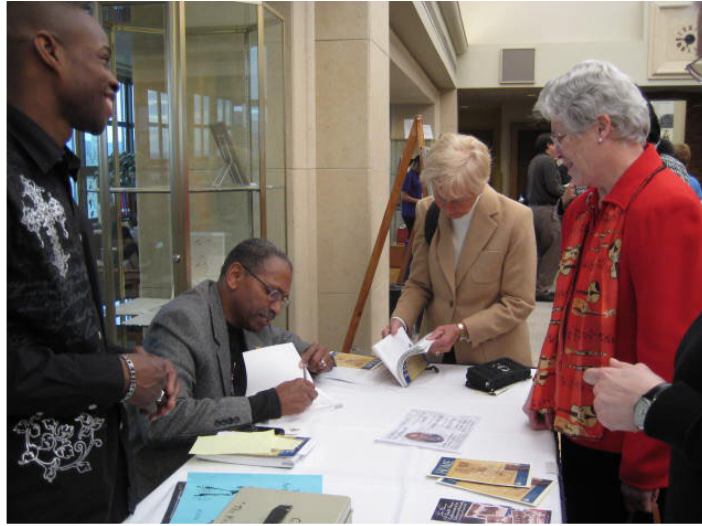

Old friends come to honor and support Sherman.

Not just a great book, but a keepsake.

Rosette, OED and Sister Mary Ann Foley, Education for Justice.

Fr. Manglaviti, SJ and Sondra.

OED work studies, Ashley, Alicia and Shivani, our

*Family and friends...there's no better place
to be!*

The fascinating history of Northeastern Pennsylvania.