Cathedral Kitchen Dress Code for Serving Meals

Long pants or capris are preferred

You may wear shorts or a skirt – BOTH SHORTS AND SKIRTS MUST BE AT LEAST KNEE LENGTH

Tops that cover from the neck down to the legs and upper arms (NO SHORT TOPS, TANK TOPS, CAMIS, SCOOP OR V-NECK, OR THIN STRAPS). In hot weather, short sleeve t-shirts are preferred.

All clothing should be loose fitting (NO TIGHT KNITS OR SPANDEX)

Shoes with toes and heels covered are a must. (NO SANDALS, FLIP-FLOPS OR HIGH HEELS). Spills happen and we don’t want anyone to get burned by hot food.

Long hair must be pulled back in a clip or band.

Due to health regulations, you will be asked to wear a plastic apron and latex gloves. You may bring your own apron in the style shown here if you like. If you are plating food in the kitchen, you will have to wear a hat or hair net.
