HOT TOPICS
• Students and parents are able to submit a 2017-2018 FAFSA as of October 1, 2016 rather than beginning on January 1, 2017.
• Students and parents will report income information from an early tax year (2015 instead of 2016)
• The Financial Aid Office encourages all students and parents to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool with the FAFSA, if eligible.
• 2017-2018 Financial Aid award notifications will continue to be dependent on final spring grades.

Comprehensive Guide to Financial Aid Programs
• Review the guide to know your rights and responsibilities to scholarships, grants, loans, work study, gift aid policy, satisfactory academic progress (SAP), refund for withdrawals, federal verification policy and procedures and a variety of other topics.
• SAP-students must meet minimum, cumulative grade point averages specified for awards as well as keep proper pace toward completing degree requirements. Annual determination of satisfactory academic progress occurs after the spring semester.
• Visit scranton.edu/financialaid, click on Publications.

FAFSA CHECKLIST

To complete the FAFSA, you will need:

- Social Security Number – Student and Parent(s)
- Alien Registration Number (if you are not a U.S. citizen)
- 2015 federal income tax returns, W-2s (review Box 12 and 14 for untaxed pension contributions), and other records of money earned. (Note: You may be able to transfer federal tax return information into FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool.)
- Current bank statements and records of investments. For example, S corporation or investment farms (if applicable)
- 2015 records of untaxed income (if applicable)
- Federal Student Aid ID and password to electronically sign for student and parent. (If you do not already have one, visit fsaid.ed.gov to obtain one.)

COMMON FAFSA ERRORS

- Using an incorrect student Social Security number.
- Reporting name incorrectly. (Use official name on SSN card.)
- Misreporting the amount of federal tax paid. Must report tax paid, not tax withheld.
- Neglecting to report all applicant’s assets.
- Misrepresenting parents’ current marital status.
- Misreporting the number of people in the family household for the academic year.
- Misreporting the number of dependent household members that will actually be enrolled for the academic year.

WHAT TO EXPECT AFTER FILING

1. An e-mail notification providing a link to your Student Aid Report (SAR) will be sent to the student e-mail provided on the FAFSA.
2. The Financial Aid Office will generate an email to the student (Royal mail) and parent (FAFSA provided email) indicating receipt of the FAFSA and if additional documents are required.
3. Beginning in June, as records are completed, an e-mail will be sent directing the student to view the Electronic Eligibility Notification (e-award letter) on my.scranton, click on Home and Self-Service portal.

4. Eligibility for need-based aid programs is determined using the information supplied on the FAFSA. If a family’s financial situation has changed significantly from the prior year, need-based aid, including University of Scranton award(s) may increase or decrease.

5. Award amounts are influenced by choice of housing. Students who change from University owned housing to off-campus or commuter housing will have their need-based aid eligibility determined using a lower cost of attendance budget. University of Scranton need-based awards may be reduced on average $3,000 an academic year.

FAFSA VERIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

The U.S. Department of Education randomly selects students, through the Financial Aid Office (FAO), to verify data entered on the FAFSA. If selected, the FAO will be requesting:

1. Online Verification Forms (available under my.scranton)
2. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) 2015 tax return transcripts for student and parent(s)
   - Avoid having to obtain IRS tax transcripts by choosing to use the IRS data retrieval option when completing the online FAFSA

WORK STUDY PROGRAM

To be considered for the Federal Work Study program, students must file the FAFSA and indicate their interest in the program. Students should also complete a Work Study application via the my.scranton.edu portal. Students employed in the 2017 spring semester will be able to complete the online work study application prior to the end of the semester. Students who are eligible to return to their previous work study position(s) and who have been requested to return by the employing department will have work study placement notifications issued to their department supervisors.
