"Happy Are Those Who Believe Without Seeing Me."

Thomas refused to believe that Jesus had risen, until Jesus himself appeared to him...and Jesus said to him, “Happy are those who believe without seeing me.”

In Man’s Search for Meaning, psychotherapist Viktor Frankl notes that many war prisoners caved in under the pressure of the Nazi death camps.

But not everyone did. As a prisoner himself, he probed for the reason why some caved in and others did not.

He discovered that those who held firm were prisoners who believed that their lives – and hence their sufferings – had “ultimate meaning.”

Dr. Frankl concluded that faith gave prisoners a remarkable energy and power.

For your reflection…
Can you recall a time when your faith gave you the power to survive a bad or difficult situation?

– from Mission 2000, Mark Link, S.J.

Food for Thought…
“What we know about God is important, but what we do with what we know about God is even more important.”

– Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM
Today our prime educational objective must be to form men-and-women-for-others; men and women who will live not for themselves but for God and his Christ - for the God-man who lived and died for all the world; men and women who cannot even conceive of love of God which does not include love for the least of their neighbors; men and women completely convinced that love of God which does not issue in justice for others is a farce.
