The Life and Work of DOROTHY DAY

Dorothy Day, who has been given the title “Servant of God” as the first step in the process towards being declared a saint in the Catholic Church, was called many things during her life: an activist, a journalist, a radical, a bohemian, a mother, a convert, a mystic, a prophet, a faithful daughter of the Church. After her death on November 29, 1980, historian David O’Brien famously called her “the most important, interesting, and influential figure in the history of American Catholicism.”

[See: http://dorothydayguild.org]

PUBLIC LECTURE:
Encounters with Dorothy Day
Presenter: Robert Ellsberg
former editor of The Catholic Worker

Tuesday, September 29, at 7 p.m.
Latour Room, Nazareth Student Center
Marywood University

Wednesday, September 30, at 7 p.m.
Pearn Auditorium, Room 228, Brennan Hall
The University of Scranton

PUBLIC LECTURE:
Memories of My Grandmother, Prophet and Catholic Peace Activist
Presenter: Martha Hennessey, Ms. Day’s granddaughter

Wednesday, October 21, at 7 p.m.
Latour Room, Nazareth Student Center
Marywood University

Thursday, October 22, at 7 p.m.
Rose Room, Fifth Floor, Brennan Hall
The University of Scranton

Movie: Entertaining Angels: The Dorothy Day Story
Wednesday, September 16, at 7 p.m., Conference Room A, Swartz Center for Spiritual Life, Marywood University

Tuesday, September 22, at 7 p.m., Pearn Auditorium, Room 228,
Brennan Hall, The University of Scranton

Documentary: Dorothy Day: Don’t Call Me a Saint
Tuesday, October 13, at 7 p.m., Pearn Auditorium, Room 228,
Brennan Hall, The University of Scranton

Wednesday, October 14, at 7 p.m., Latour Room,
Nazareth Student Center, Marywood University

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:
Sister John Michele Southwick IHM:
southwick@marywood.edu

Phil Yevics: Philip.Yevics@scranton.edu.

Additional Event information can be found at marywood.edu/campmin/communityservice