Registration
A warm welcome awaits you when you check in to receive your Family Welcome packet. The cost of registration is $35 per family.

Campus Ministries’ Service Trip Fundraiser: Annual Basket Raffle
Money raised through this annual event will support domestic and international service trips that directly benefit almost 200 faculty, staff and student participants each year. Baskets will be displayed and tickets sold throughout the weekend on the 1st floor of The DeNaples Center.

University Players Present: The Glass Menagerie
The University of Scranton Players are proud to open their season with Tennessee Williams’ masterpiece about family, The Glass Menagerie. Set in St. Louis, The Glass Menagerie is the tale of a family trying to come together as its matriarch, Amanda, tries to control the life of her children, Tom and Laura. Told through Tom’s point of view, The Glass Menagerie offers profound reflections on families, memory and time. Tickets can be purchased by calling the box office at (570) 941-4318.

Late Night at Scranton Family Outdoor Movie Night: Cars 3
Bring a blanket and gather as a family to catch “Cars 3” on the Dionne Green! Plan to enjoy classic movie snacks at this annual event which is sponsored by Late Night at Scranton.

Campus Tours
As you take a campus tour, not only will you visit our exceptional buildings, you’ll also learn about the University’s rich history and culture.

Bike Scranton
Bike Scranton is a cooperative program between the University of Scranton Office of Sustainability and the Lackawanna Valley Heritage Authority. All University of Scranton students and families may borrow a bicycle as long as they can provide a photo ID and are at least 16 years of age. Bikes will be available on the DeNaples Center patio, and tours are self-guided.

Special Interest Sessions

Career Development and Your Student
Representatives from The Gerard R. Roche Center for Career Development will discuss ways in which they help students focus on career decisions that are consistent with their unique talents, aspirations, and vision for living.

On the Beauty of the Humanities in Jesuit Education
Dr. Cyrus Olsen, Director of GE Assessment & Associate Professor of Theology and Religious studies, will explore how the humanities are creating the innovative workforce of tomorrow.

Making Sense of Politics Today
What can political science tell us about the current state of US politics? Dr. Michael Allison, associate professor and chair of the Department of Political Science, will discuss how political scientists have tried to make sense of recent political developments and how we go about teaching these issues inside and outside the classroom.

Everything You Ever Wanted to Ask a Jesuit
University Chaplain Rev. Rick Malloy, S.J., shares how The University of Scranton gets students thinking about their own spirituality and impact on the world. During this session, Father Rick will answer questions that you have always wanted to ask a Jesuit.

Maintaining Health in College: Managing Stress
Stress is one of the primary health concerns for college students. Too much stress negatively affects physical well-being, life satisfaction and academic performance, and students often struggle to manage their stress effectively. Dr. Dani Arigo will introduce ways to approach and manage the stress of college, which can help students maximize their professional and personal development.

Scranton 201 Walking Tour
We introduced you to the City of Scranton at New Student Orientation. Now, Director of Community and Government Relations Julie Schumacher Cohen will lead you on a walking tour of the Electric City highlighting the various businesses and experiences available to your student. You will learn how the University and community partner with each other and also where to shop, eat and locate available discounts during Family Weekend.

Siblings’ U
Home can feel quiet when your college student is not there. Here is the opportunity for your children to reconnect and catch up. Our Resident Assistants have put together exciting activities appropriate for all ages.

Community Fair
Stop by the Royal Way to explore a variety of goods and services that our area small businesses have to offer. The fun will include games, family photo opportunities and student club fundraisers.

Reflections at Chapman Lake
Take a scenic ride to Chapman Lake and tour the grounds where our students connect with their faith and our Jesuit mission when attending our many retreat offerings. Members of the Campus Ministries staff will be available to provide information to visitors, and the grounds will be available to explore. Address: 1226 Chapman Lake Road, Jermyn, PA. Directions are available on the Campus Ministries website. (Please visit at your leisure, as transportation will not be provided).

Family Weekend Mass
Join our community as we celebrate the Eucharist and commissioning of new Student Ministers at the 2017 Family Weekend Mass. Families of all faith commitments are warmly welcome.

Trumpeter/Vocalist Jumaane Smith and Friends Present:
“Louis, Louis, Louis!"
Jumaane Smith and friends present an evening celebrating the music of Louis Armstrong, Louis Prima, and Louis Jordan, with an appearance by The University of Scranton Singers. Jumaane is lead trumpeter with both Michael Buble’s band and The Harry Connick Jr. show band, and he has performed and recorded with a long list of renowned artists and entertainers. For more information on Jumaane Smith, visit www.jumaanesmith.com.

USPB After Dark: Family Weekend Edition
Join the University of Scranton Programming Board (USPB) as they transform the DeNaples campus center into a family entertainment complex! Featuring multiple attractions throughout the building, including a live, interactive game show; Scranton bingo, photo booths and more, this is an exciting family event that is not to be missed. Sponsored by the USPB.

Brunch on Your Own
The Fresh Food Company invites you to enjoy a traditional University of Scranton Sunday brunch. Fresh Food Company can be paid for onsite by using your student’s swipe on their Royal ID card or by paying cash.
