Henry Nicols (center) receives an honorary bachelor's degree from J.A. Panuksa, S.J. at the University's 1993 Commencement exercises.

Henry Nicols, H '93

Henry Nicols, who received an Honorary Bachelor's Degree from the University in 1993, died from injuries sustained in a car accident, 8 May, 2000. He was 26 years old.

A native of Cooperstown, N.Y., Henry was a nationally recognized advocate for AIDS education. In 1991, Henry, a hemophiliac, announced that he had contracted HIV from a 1984 blood transfusion. Although he dedicated much of his life to educating people about AIDS, he also enjoyed mountain climbing, water-skiing and baby-sitting.

Jean Marie O'Hara Lynett

Jean Marie O'Hara Lynett, a longtime friend of the University and a well-known civic leader of Lackawanna County, died 11 October, 2000.

In 1976, the University presented Mrs. Lynett with an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree. In 1972, the University named a Presidential Scholarship in her honor. Mrs. Lynett also chaired the women's division of the University's first fund campaign led by the late John J. Long, S.J., President.

EDUCATION · OPPORTUNITY · HOPE

FOR 113 YEARS, THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON HAS KEPT FAITH WITH ITS FOUNDER'S VISION. SHARE THE LEGACY.

Through their generous gifts to the University, John E. (Jack) Brennan '68 and Arthur J. Kania, Esq., '53, give hope to a new generation of students pursuing education and opportunity in the field of business. Mr. Brennan and Mr. Kania are stewards of a legacy whose beneficiaries include Joseph Witkowski '01, a finance major from Ho-Ho-Kus, N.J, and Adrienne Hamson '01, an international business major from Brookhaven.
