Selected Indirect Measures
Institutional Learning Outcome (ILO) 4

ILO 4

Employ their knowledge and intellect to address situations in a way that demonstrates a devotion to the spiritual and corporal welfare of other human beings and by a special commitment to the pursuit of social justice and the common good of the entire human community.

Social Justice – Activism

- 7% Frequently demonstrated for a cause.
- 17% Frequently communicated their opinion about a cause publicly.
- 12% Worked on a local, state, or national campaign.
- 22% Frequently helped raise money for a cause or campaign.

Community Service

- 38% Frequently performed community service as part of a class.
- 31% Frequently performed volunteer or community service.

---

1The selected indirect measures reflect survey questions from the 2014 College Senior Survey that map to the University’s Institutional Learning Outcomes. The response rate in 2014 was 31%.

INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH OFFICE
www.scranton.edu/institutional-research