The Gerard R. Roche Center for Career Development conducted its annual First Destination Survey of Master’s and Doctoral graduates over a 6-month period from their graduation. This time frame is consistent with the National Association of Colleges and Employers’ (NACE) First Destination Survey Standards and Protocols.

The following represent key findings for the Class of 2017:

» After utilizing in-person surveys, emails, phone calls and professional networking sites to ascertain post-graduation status, information was collected from 416 graduates out of the 582 who graduated from Summer 2016 through Spring 2017 (per the Registrar) which yielded a 71% knowledge rate. This knowledge rate was slightly lower than the 72% knowledge rate for the Class of 2016.

» The overall success rate for the Class of 2017 was 98%. This success rate was approximately seven percent higher than that of the Class of 2016, which was 91%.

» The overall mean annual salary for the Class of 2017 was $72,124, over $1,000 higher than last year’s mean of $70,911.

» The Northeast remained the top destination for employment, with 72% employed in the tristate (NY, NJ, PA) area.

1. Knowledge Rate refers to the percentage of graduates for whom knowledge of their first-destination career outcomes has been obtained.
2. Success Rate refers to the percentage of graduates that have found success based on their career plan. (Full-Time includes long term service, military, and starting a business)
3. The overall mean starting salary is based on the 48 graduates who reported a starting salary. Please see page 7 for additional information.
