Outstanding Student Leader

This award recognizes the efforts of a student leader who has greatly contributed to student life at The University of Scranton. This student should have maintained a dedication to continually improve his or her leadership qualities, the organizations to which he or she belonged and the campus community as a whole. Applicants must be in good academic standing, with a 2.5 cumulative grade point average, at the time of application, selection, and presentation of the award. A recipient may not be on disciplinary probation. More than one student can win this award.

Narrative

Please attach a narrative outlining why you think this individual should be considered for the Outstanding Student Leader Award. Please include examples of how you feel this person's involvement has positively influenced student life at the University, how they have been an asset to their particular involvements, and how this person exemplifies student leadership at The University of Scranton.

All nominations are due to the Center for Student Engagement (DeNaples 205) by noon on April 8, 2013. Incomplete applications will not be considered. All applications will be reviewed by the awards committee. Please include the nomination form with your narrative. If you have any questions, please contact leadership@scranton.edu. * Excluding Student Government Senator of the Year, Outstanding Leadership in USPB, Residence Hall Association Leadership Award, Outstanding Peer Educator and Outstanding Leader in the Commuter Student Association.
