

COMMUNITY ADVISORY

Date: July 13, 2025

Scranton Police are investigating an Aggravated Assault that occurred on Mulberry Street and Taylor Avenue at 3:00 A.M. on Saturday, July 12, 2025.

Scranton Police responded to the 400 block of Mulberry Street for a large fight involving a group of juveniles. During the fight, a victim was assaulted with a knife. The group fled the scene in a direction away from campus as police responded to the area. There is no information on the condition of the victim. None of the participants appear to have any affiliation to the University.

If anyone witnessed this incident or has any further information, contact (Scranton Police at 570-348-4141 or University Police at 570-941-7888). Information may also be provided confidentially by using the University Police Silent Witness form.

All community members are reminded to take appropriate and prudent precautions by being aware of your surroundings, walk in groups, remain in lighted areas at night, remain vigilant and report anything suspicious immediately by calling University Police at 570-941-7777 or Scranton Police by calling 911.

Community Advisories are provided to inform students and employees of incidents that could represent a threat and will remain posted for 48 hours.

University Police, 820 Mulberry Street

University Parking and Public Safety Pavilion

Dial 570.941.7777 for emergency assistance or to report an incident in progress.

Dial 570.941.7888 for information or for 24-hour Safety Escort Service.

This advisory is issued by University Police for the information of The University of Scranton community under the provisions of the United States Campus Security Act