

Restaurant Recommendations in Scranton

1. Cooper's Seafood House

Cooper's Seafood House is a world-famous restaurant located a few blocks from the University of Scranton on Washington Avenue. Frequently featured in the tv series The Office, the restaurant has thousands of pop culture memorabilia and historic artifacts from northeastern Pennsylvania

Cooper's Seafood House Scranton PA - As Seen On The Office - Roadside Attraction

2. Pizza by Pappas

Located on Washington Avenue, this restaurant is noted for both its pizzas and its sandwiches, especially its Philly Cheese Steaks. Also notable for its miniature train displays throughout the restaurant.

Pizza by Pappas - Scranton, PA

3. DaVinci's Pizza

Located on Linden Street with Saint Thomas Hall in viewing distance, DaVinci's Pizza is noted for its Siclian Grandma Pizza and its Calzones.

DaVinci's On The Square | Scranton, PA

4. Thai Rak Thai

For those in the mood for Asian cuisine with a spicy side to it, Thai Rak Thai is located on Washington Avenue and offers a variety of different dishes, and is famous for business lunches in the city

Thai Rak Thai Restaurant – Thai Restaurant in Scranton

5. Ale Mary's

Located a bit further from the University of Scranton campus on Franklin Ave, but still within easy walking distance, Ale Mary's is a gastropub with a reputation for wings and flatbread sandwiches. The location was a speakeasy in the days of Prohibition in the 1920s!!

Ale Mary's at the Bittenbender | Scranton, PA Gastropub

6. A.V. Restaurant and Lounge

For those in the mood for fine dining, the A.V. Restaurant and Lounge on Penn Avenue is an excellent option. The cuisine is largely Italian and Italian-American inspired, and the restaurant is reputed to be haunted!

AV Restaurant & Lounge

NHD
NATIONAL HISTORY DAY®

