

Latin American Studies Courses

Fall 2020

HIST 125 Colonial Latin America (CH, D), S. Kester, TR 8:30 – 9:45

An introduction to colonial Latin American history: Amerindian civilizations; the Spanish and Portuguese colonial period, with emphasis on the themes of conquest, colonialism, race, class and gender. Taught in English.

SPAN 311 Spanish Conversation (CF, D), Y. Silva, TR 10:00 - 11:15

SPAN 311 Spanish Conversation (CF, D), TBA, (two sections)

TR 8:30 – 9:45 and TR 1:00 – 2:15

(Prerequisites: SPAN 211-212 or equivalent, as determined by placement exam)
Reading-based conversation stressing development of self-expression in Spanish. Practice in oral composition. Taught in Spanish. Includes activities inside and/or outside the classroom that involve Language Learning Center (language lab) resources.

SPAN 320 Introduction to Hispanic Literature (CL), Y. Silva, TR 1:00 – 2:15

(Prerequisite: SPAN 311-312 or equivalent) An introduction to the principal genres of literature (poetry, short essay, essay, drama and novel) through analysis of representative works in the Hispanic tradition. Taught in Spanish.

SPAN 335 Service & the Hispanic Community (D), TBA, TR 2:30 – 3:45

(Prerequisite: SPAN 311-312 or equivalent) Focus on Hispanic cultures and traditions, the immigrant experience and cultural displacement. Each student, with assistance from local social service agencies, Collegiate Volunteers and the course professor, develops and carries out a service project to the local Hispanic community involving 40 to 45 hours of service work. Taught in Spanish.