

The Charge of Illegal Immigration in Light of Catholic Social Teaching

Terence Sweeney, Ph.D.

Terence Sweeney is assistant teaching professor in the Honors Program and the Humanities Department at Villanova University. His work centers on Augustine and the Augustinian tradition while exploring the meaning of community and engaging contemporary thought especially Catholic Social Thought. He writes for a number of publications including Commonweal, Public Discourse, America, and National Catholic Register.

Monday, April 13 • 6:00 p.m.

Pearn Auditorium, Brennan 228

Sponsored by Christians for the Common Good with support from Ethics Across the Curriculum.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

will.cohen@scranton.edu or christian.krokus@scranton.edu