CACREP accreditation
The University of Scranton’s School Counseling Program is nationally accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), the accrediting body for the counseling profession.

Our School Counseling Program is the 2nd oldest CACREP-accredited program in PA and is 1 of only 13 accredited programs in the entire state.

Students graduating from CACREP accredited programs may take the National Counselor Exam (NCE) which is a step towards becoming a Licensed Professional Counselor.
SCHOOL COUNSELING >> MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the School Counseling Program at The University of Scranton is to prepare students to become professional school counselors in elementary, middle, or high schools. The program emphasizes professional school counselors working to improve educational practices that impact all students through the development and implementation of comprehensive, results-based, school counseling programs.
