

CHS 241 - (D) Case Management and Interviewing

3 cr.

The role of the human-services professional as a case manager or coordinator of services is examined. Initial interviewing skills and techniques are discussed with an emphasis on case conceptualization, problem identification, goal selection, evaluation, and follow-up. Includes service-learning component.