

The University of Scranton Occupational Therapy Open Rank, Tenure-track Professor Position

The Edward R. Leahy, Jr. Hall is a state-of-the-art center for rehabilitation education housing the Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy and Exercise Science programs. It features many opportunities for research and creative programming:

- 3 Pediatric Rehab labs with Snoezelen Room
- ADL apartment with simulated environments
- Hand Rehab lab
- Low Vision and Developmental Visual labs
- Opportunities to collaborate with Physical Therapy and Exercise Science specialized labs including Motion Analysis and Body Composition Analysis
- On-site, pro-bono clinic

The Tenure-track Professor position is a 9-month position which begins August 2019 in an accredited 5 year Master of Science in Occupational Therapy program which is transitioning to a 6 year OTD program. Qualified applicants must have an earned non-clinical doctorate (e.g., PhD, EdD) in occupational therapy or related field, ABD will be considered.

The successful candidate will demonstrate an area of clinical expertise, the ability to facilitate faculty mentored student research, and a record of teaching effectiveness. Leadership opportunities are available for candidates with strong qualifications. The candidate must be eligible for licensure as an occupational therapist in Pennsylvania.

This is an opportunity to join a team of diverse, accomplished and passionate educators. There is extensive administrative support for teaching, service and scholarship, a reasonable teaching load and class sizes, and extraordinary research labs with the latest in technology.

The University of Scranton is a nationally recognized institution of around 6,000 students. It is one of 28 Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. Scranton is a small city, rich in history, with a low cost of living and multiple cultural and recreational opportunities. It is located in the Pocono Mountains with nearby skiing and beautiful countryside, yet it is less than two hours from New York City and Philadelphia.

Applicants must apply online at <https://universityofscrantonjobs.com> and include a letter of application summarizing qualifications, curriculum vitae, and contact information for three references. Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled.

The University of Scranton is committed to providing a safe and nondiscriminatory employment and educational environment. The University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, age, veteran status, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, or other status protected by law. Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. The University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational, extracurricular, athletic, or other programs or in the context of employment.

THE UNIVERSITY OF
SCRANTON
A JESUIT UNIVERSITY

The University of Scranton is, by tradition and choice, a Catholic and Jesuit university. The successful candidate will have an understanding of and commitment to the goals of Jesuit education. The University's mission statement may be found at www.scranton.edu/mission. The University is committed to developing a diverse faculty, staff, and student body and to modeling an inclusive campus community which values the expression of differences in ways that promote excellence in teaching, learning, personal development and institutional success.

Some of the labs in Leahy Hall:

Above: Main pediatric gross motor lab

Right: Small kitchen

Below: Streetscape simulated environments

