

SEEKING PART-TIME FACULTY

The University of Scranton has an ongoing need for highly qualified part-time faculty to staff a variety of courses and provide library services each semester. Part-time faculty may instruct one or more courses on an “as needed” basis. We invite qualified applicants to submit their credentials online at universityofscrantonjobs.com to become part of this pool of applicants. You will be notified if and when an opening occurs in the specific discipline(s) in which you have expressed interest and in which you are qualified. Your credentials will remain active until May 31, 2018. After that date, you must update your on-line application in order to remain a member of the candidate pool. Please refer to individual postings online for minimum and preferred qualifications, as they vary by department. Notice will also be posted with the Pennsylvania Office of Employment Security.

Following are the University's departments:

College of Arts and Sciences: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Computing Science, Physics/Electrical Engineering, Psychology, History, Political Science, Philosophy, Sociology/Criminal Justice/Criminology, Theology/Religious Studies, Latin American Studies & Women's Studies (LA/W/S), Asian Studies, English & Theater (including Composition), World Languages & Cultures and Communication
