

The University of Scranton has an ongoing need for highly qualified adjunct faculty to staff a variety of courses and provide library services each semester. Adjunct faculty may instruct one or more courses on an “as needed” basis. We invite qualified individuals to submit their credentials online at universityofscrantonjobs.com to become part of this pool of applicants. You will be notified if and when an opening occurs in the specific discipline(s) in which you have expressed interest and in which you are qualified. Your credentials will remain active until May 31, 2020. After that date, you must update your on-line application in order to remain a member of the candidate pool. Please refer to individual postings online for minimum and preferred qualifications, as they vary by department.

Following are the University's departments:

College of Arts and Sciences: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Computing Science, Physics/Electrical Engineering, Psychology, History: Art, Studio Art & Music, History, Political Science, Philosophy, Sociology/Criminal Justice/Criminology, Theology/Religious Studies, Asian Studies, English & Theater (including Composition), World Languages & Cultures and Communication

Panuska College of Professional Studies: Education, Nursing, Nursing: Pharmacology, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Counseling & Human Services, Counseling & Human Services: Applied Behavior, Health Administration & Human Resources, and Exercise Science & Sports

The Kania School of Management: Accounting, Economics/Finance, Management/Marketing/Entrepreneurship, Operations and Information Management, and Master's in Business Administration (MBA)

Weinberg Memorial Library: Research & Instruction

The University of Scranton is, by tradition and choice, a Catholic and Jesuit university. The successful candidate will have an understanding of and commitment to the goals of Jesuit education. A full statement of our mission may be found at <http://www.scranton.edu/mission>. The University of Scranton is an EO Employer/Educator. The University of Scranton is committed to providing a safe and nondiscriminatory employment and educational environment. The University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, age, veteran status, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, or other status protected by law. Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. The University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational, extracurricular, athletic, or other programs or in the context of employment. Veterans, minority persons, women, and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.