Dear <First>,

In September 1955, as you walked across Linden and Monroe Streets, then the center of the University's Campus, your imagination was filled with thoughts of what your time at the University would bring to your life.

In June 1959, as you left the University, better for the experience, you were focused on your first job, further education, or your first duty station.

Each of you, in the 50 intervening years, in your own way has reached or perhaps even exceeded your goals in life. You have fond memories of the many and varied paths you traveled since setting out with a University of Scranton diploma as the ticket for your long journey. Your classmates want to see you and hear about your experiences.

Please accept this invitation from the University and the Class of '59 Reunion Committee to come back to Scranton on the weekend of June 12-14, 2009, to share your experiences with your classmates. We are anxious to see you and to celebrate together the many and varied accomplishments of the Class of '59.

There are 160 living graduates of the Class of '59. Each one who makes the journey back to Scranton in June for the celebration will not regret making the trip and will honor us with your presence.

When you get here in June, you will marvel at what the University of Scranton has accomplished in the way of facilities, faculty and student body.

We are confident that you will leave the Reunion saying to yourself, "I am glad I took the time to return to the University and be part of a great celebration of friendship and memories."

COME AND JOIN US
THE CLASS OF 1959 COMMITTEE

TO THE CLASS OF 1959

You came to the University as freshman hoping to succeed in college.

You left as "Scranton" graduates prepared to take on the challenges awaiting you. You learned that the road of life was often not straight, smooth, level or well-marked. You struggled, adapted and persevered and you succeeded.

The time is approaching for us to return to the University and share our life's experiences and memories with our classmates and friends. I am looking forward to seeing you at the celebration of our 50th Anniversary of Graduation from the University of Scranton.

GERALD R. WALSH '59

The Patrick & Margaret DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton five or 50 years ago, we hope you'll feel at home in the new Patrick & Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.

FROM THE COMMITTEE

The Reunion Committee is hard at work preparing the way for your arrival at the 50th Anniversary Celebration. Do your part by marking your calendar, reserving a hotel room, and contacting your friends from the Class of '59 to encourage them to join you at the Reunion.

Special thanks to The University of Scranton Alumni Society for its support of Reunion events.
