JUNE 12-14, 2009

Campus Housing

Relive your college days by staying on campus during Reunion! Housing is available on Friday and Saturday nights for alumni who are attending the Class Dinner on Saturday evening.

Residence Halls

Condrion and Redington Halls provide air-conditioned, suite-style accommodations, with two adjoining, double-occupancy rooms, one bathroom and linens.

Townhouses

The Mulberry and Madison townhouses offer apartment-style accommodations with four or five single-bed rooms located off of a common area. These air-conditioned apartments feature a kitchen, one bathroom and basic linens.

The Patrick & Margaret DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton five or 50 years ago, we hope you'll feel at home in the new Patrick & Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.

FROM THE COMMITTEE

Come back to enjoy the fun but also to salute the great University that we all love and are so proud of. Don't forget to bring along your stories to share of the remarkable Jesuits and lay professors who helped us all become what we are.

Dear Fellow Members of the Class of 1969:

On behalf of our Class Reunion Committee, I wish to cordially extend to you an invitation to attend our 40th Class Reunion on campus June 12, 13 and 14.

Whether or not you have attended Reunions in the past, please plan on doing so this year. The University of Scranton has greatly changed over the past 40 years. If you have not been back to Alma Mater lately, I am certain that you will be astounded by the growth and vitality of our college. The latest jewel in the University's crown is the new DeNaples Campus Center which has earned rave reviews from all, but most importantly from the students themselves.

As the University has changed, so have we. Let's take this opportunity to step back in time, forty years to be precise, and re-live that exceptional time we spent together at this magnificent University. Come back for a weekend filled with reminiscences, good fellowship and renewal of old friendships.

This is all you have to do: Visit the web site www.scranton.edu/reunion. Click on the Class of 1969 page for announcements that will be updated frequently between now and the Reunion. Visit as often as you like and encourage your classmate-friends to do so as well.

You can even use the website to register to attend. A special "Who is Coming" list button on the site will be updated regularly so you can keep tabs on . . . well . . . who is coming. Of course if you prefer to register the old fashioned way, you can do that easily by completing and returning the registration form that is enclosed with this letter.

Absolutely everything you need to know is in this letter. However, if you have any questions, please call 1-800-SCRANTON at any time.

The Class of 1969 Reunion Committee and most importantly your U of S friends and classmates are eagerly looking forward to seeing you once again on campus in June.

Hoping to see you soon and with my best regards,

JOE CASEY '69
