FROM THE COMMITTEE

Visit www.scranton.edu/reunion to learn more and see who from our class is planning to attend. Register today using this brochure or the online registration to add your name to the list of those who will be on hand this June.

It was Crocodile Rock, Delta Dawn, Shambala and Yesterday Once More that spoke to our souls. At the movies, we marveled at Jesus Christ Superstar, Magnum Force and Paper Moon, while The Sting took best picture. Boston hadn't won a World Series in 59 years, the Water-gate hearings began, and Pet Rocks were the latest fad. Yes, the year was 1973 and it was our year. We would finally be graduates of The University of Scranton.

The times then were turbulent, and debate was a social staple. We made it our business to discuss and most of all to listen. We wouldn't always agree, but the disagreements were carried on the shoulders of respect. We were given the finest education by those eminently qualified. For this, they have our eternal gratitude.

No man ever steps in the same river twice, for it's not the same river and he's not the same man.

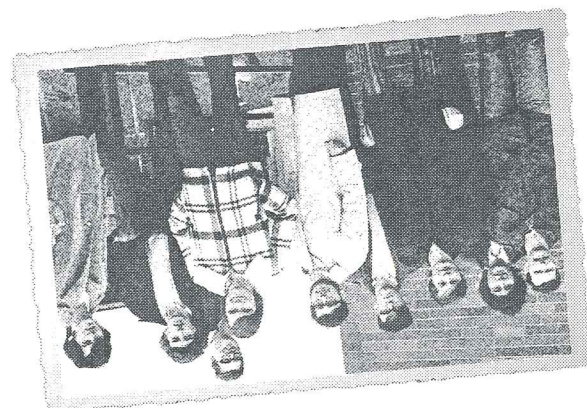

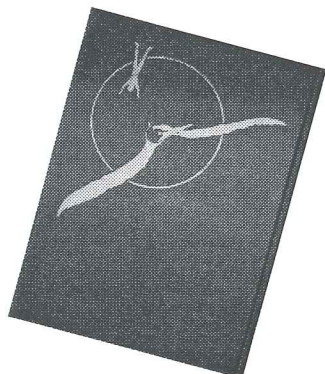

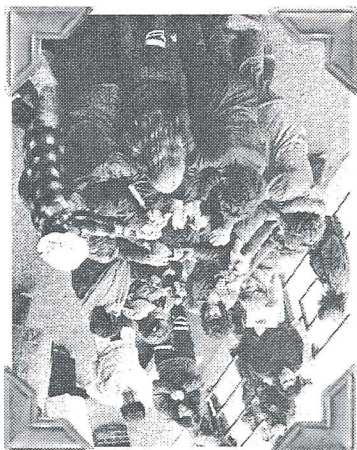

HERACLITUS

We, the members of the Reunion Committee, are planning a celebration to mark the 35th year of our graduation. Much time has passed since that day and much has changed: our school, our lives and our society. But, that is just as it should be. After all, we can still recall the words spoken to us by Heraclitus in Philosophy 101.

Keeping in mind that you are an important part of this class and that the reunion wouldn't be complete without you, we would like to encourage you to join us in this celebration. We think you will be renewed and refreshed by the experience. We are confident that even though the words of Heraclitus may ring true, for a short time at least, it may indeed become for us Yesterday Once More.

YOUR REUNION

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

Your Class Gift

Reunions are milestones – occasions for you to commemorate your place in Scranton's history, to reflect on what your alma mater means to you, and to renew your ties to this great institution. Reunion celebrations are also a time when classes focus their fund-raising efforts on increased giving in support of undergraduate education. Each year our Reunion campaigns raise increased dollars and participation for The Royal Fund, which supports the core needs of undergraduate education and provides unrestricted dollars for the greatest priorities of the University.

Every gift made to Scranton between June 1, 2007, and May 31, 2008, counts for your reunion and the Scranton Reunion Class Challenges – The Pride, Passion, Promise Awards. Find out more about this friendly competition and make your gift online at www.scranton.edu/reuniongiving

Special thanks to The University of Scranton's Alumni Society for its support of Reunion events. To learn more about the resources that the Alumni Society can provide, or to volunteer for your local club, class committee or an affiliate group, please contact us at 1-800-SCRANTON or alumni@scranton.edu.

The DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton 5 or 25 years ago, you will be the first Reunion classes to see and enjoy the new Patrick and Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.
