It's hard to believe, but it's been thirty years since we graduated from The University of Scranton. We, the members of the Reunion committee, are hoping that you'll join us this June to celebrate our Reunion, back where it all began.

When we entered the University in 1974 we came for different reasons – some because the University was in their backyard, others for the excellent education provided by the Jesuits, and some because a friend of family member guided them there. While our paths intermingled for only four short years, the experiences we shared and the friendships we formed helped us become the people we are today.

Perhaps a glance at a photograph will jar a few scenes loose from a hidden crevice in our minds. A look into the past will maybe, even for one fleeting moment, bring back an emotion of the time.

As we look back on the last three decades, this is a fine moment to pause and be thankful for all The University of Scranton has given us, and to reconnect with the dear friends with whom we shared it all. We hope you will contact the people who mattered most to you, and take time out of your schedule to relive your Scranton days, if only for one weekend.

YOUR REUNION

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

Your Class Gift

Reunions are milestones – occasions for you to commemorate your place in Scranton's history, to reflect on what your alma mater means to you, and to renew your ties to this great institution. Reunion celebrations are also a time when classes focus their fund-raising efforts on increased giving in support of undergraduate education. Each year our Reunion campaigns raise increased dollars and participation for The Royal Fund, which supports the core needs of undergraduate education and provides unrestricted dollars for the greatest priorities of the University.

Every gift made to Scranton between June 1, 2007, and May 31, 2008, counts for your reunion and the Scranton Reunion Class Challenges – The Pride, Passion, Promise Awards. Find out more about this friendly competition and make your gift online at Special thanks to The University of Scranton's Alumni Society for its support of Reunion events. To learn more about the resources that the Alumni Society can provide, or to volunteer for your local club, class committee or an affiliate group, please contact us at 1-800-SCRANTON or alumni@scranton.edu.

The DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton 5 or 25 years ago, you will be the first Reunion classes to see and enjoy the new Patrick and Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.
