Dear <First>,

Thirty years has no doubt visited a lot upon you. Think back even longer, say 34 years, to 1975 when we all arrived at "Da U". Linden Street had thru traffic. The Dot had great burgers. Nevils Hall had a beach. O'Toole's had Johnny Superstar. The library was tucked away in a corner of the campus. Well, it's time to come back and see what thirty years has visited upon our alma mater.

"Drinking buddies and old flames; that shy fellow who often sat by the window; the girl who accidentally dropped her books; one-time meeting, acquaintances, hometown friends. Some names and faces will stay in mind, others will be worn away as if written in sand."

1979 WINDHOVER YEARBOOK, p. 69

Come and compare your memories (the ones you can recall, anyway) with the vibrant present. The campus is nothing like it was in 1979. In many ways, however, it remains very much the same. Just like us. Perhaps we are wider, thinner, more of this, less of that. Whatever the change, the smiles will be the same. Come and reconnect. Come and share. For many of us, it will be the most affordable college trip you've made in years!
