FROM THE COMMITTEE

Let's not wait until June to reconnect. Visit our class's Web site at www.scranton.edu/myclasspage where you can share your favorite memories; see and share pictures on the Class of '88 Shutterfly site (password: reunion) and learn more about our class's plans for our 20th Reunion.

It's been 20 years since Commencement, when Dan McLaughlin stood before us and expressed these sentiments. Now, it's time to return to The University of Scranton, where we spent four happy years; remember the lessons we learned from the Jesuits, the faculty and our friends; relive the Scranton experience for one weekend this summer; and reconnect with friends and classmates.

As you glance through the pages of your 1988 Windhover yearbook, you will recognize friends you met at the University and, perhaps, continue to see today. Also, you will recognize the faces of friends you may have lost touch with over the years, but who have not faded from memory.

We received many blessings from The University of Scranton. Reunion is an opportunity to stop for a moment during our different journeys through life and come together again for one weekend. It's an opportunity to talk about our memories and new experiences before returning to our individual journeys with a renewed sense of ourselves.

The bonds that we formed 20 years ago will make it easy to recall the past and catch up with old friends. We can visit the places where we lived and learned with former classmates, and share some memories. Also, we can see the many changes and improvements that have been made at the University since we were students.

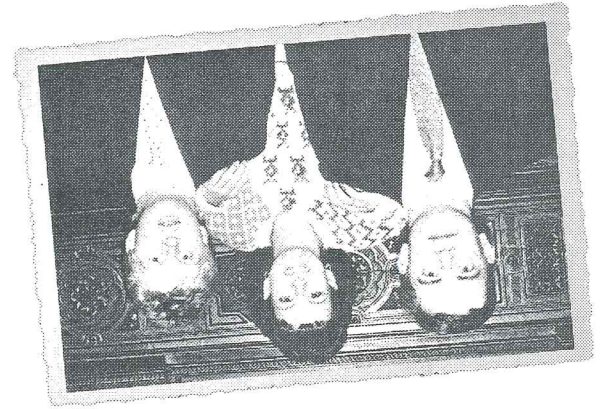

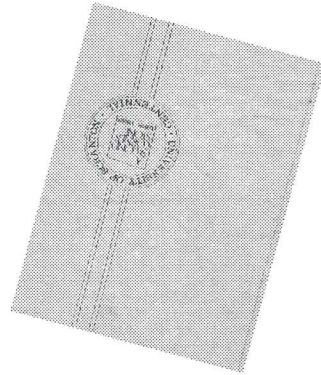

We hope you will go to our class Web site to see the growing list of attendees, share memories of your Scranton days and make a gift to the University in honor of this special year. Most importantly, we hope you will join us back on campus this summer.

THE CLASS OF 1988 COMMITTEE

[A]lthough that first day was no more confusing than today, our last, both days are milestones in our lives, marking our journey through the halls of The University of Scranton... We learned much here... about biology and history, theology and marketing. But more importantly, we learned about life from the Jesuits, the faculty, our friends and, most importantly, ourselves.

YOUR REUNION

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

Your Class Gift

Reunions are milestones – occasions for you to commemorate your place in Scranton's history, to reflect on what your alma mater means to you, and to renew your ties to this great institution. Reunion celebrations are also a time when classes focus their fund-raising efforts on increased giving in support of undergraduate education. Each year our Reunion campaigns raise increased dollars and participation for The Royal Fund, which supports the core needs of undergraduate education and provides unrestricted dollars for the greatest priorities of the University.

Every gift made to Scranton between June 1, 2007, and May 31, 2008, counts for your reunion and the Scranton Reunion Class Challenges – The Pride, Passion, Promise Awards. Find out more about this friendly competition and make your gift online at

The DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton 5 or 25 years ago, you will be the first Reunion classes to see and enjoy the new Patrick and Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.
