This June our class celebrates its 15-year Reunion. If you are like many of us with busy schedules, careers and family obligations, you may be asking yourself, "How can I find the time to attend?" We, the members of the Class of 1993 Committee, want you to know that our Reunion won't be the same without you.

In the fall of 1989, we came together as freshmen, each with a unique set of characteristics and perspectives to offer. Time passed, and we shared experiences together – Orientation, difficult classes, construction on campus, mid-summers, late nights at the library, the fun of senior week. We came together as a class, and on May 30, 1993, we parted.

Time marches on, and with it have come changes for the University and for all of us. Today students "text" rather than e-mail, take classes in Brennan Hall, live in modern townhouses and gather in the DeNaples Center. We too have changed jobs, started families, and moved to locations around the world. Despite all that change, what remains the same is that the friendships formed at Scranton – like ours – stay strong forever.

We hope you will use this opportunity to reach out to your friends, come back to Scranton and practice what our class song says: "These are the days we'll remember."

Graduation is not an end but a beginning, the start of life in the real world. No matter where you go, take with you those memories that you made here.

YOUR REUNION

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

Your Class Gift

Reunions are milestones – occasions for you to commemorate your place in Scranton's history, to reflect on what your alma mater means to you, and to renew your ties to this great institution. Reunion celebrations are also a time when classes focus their fund-raising efforts on increased giving in support of undergraduate education. Each year our Reunion campaigns raise increased dollars and participation for The Royal Fund, which supports the core needs of undergraduate education and provides unrestricted dollars for the greatest priorities of the University.

Every gift made to Scranton between June 1, 2007, and May 31, 2008, counts for your reunion and the Scranton Reunion Class Challenges – The Pride, Passion, Promise Awards. Find out more about this friendly competition and make your gift online at

The DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton 5 or 25 years ago, you will be the first Reunion classes to see and enjoy the new Patrick and Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.
