FROM THE COMMITTEE

In anticipation of our 10-year reunion, we've created a photo-sharing Web site for our class. We hope that you will visit it now and share your pictures, whether they are from our college days or recent events in your life. Then, after Reunion, we can share our photos from the weekend on the site as well. To access the site, visit www.scranton.edu/myclasspage.

Remember lugging your backpack up the hill on the Commons? Robbie, the Chinese-food delivery man? Rugby formals? Trying to find a seat in the caf at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday? Kellum Crawl? A lot has changed in our lives since those days, and a lot has changed on campus too – students now hang out in the DeNaples Center and send text messages instead of e-mails. But some things remain the same: the values and education instilled in us at Scranton, and the relationships we formed there.

Come back to celebrate our 10-year reunion this June. Activities include a class dinner, family picnic, and a Scranton Yankees game. We need your help to make it a success, so please tell all your fellow alums to return and relive the glory days of your Scranton youth. While you're there, consider a gift to honor the place where it all began.

Be sure to take a glance at our class's Web site. We have an easy reunion registration link, featuring a special "who's coming" section, so you can see who is signed up to attend. We also have included pictures from "then and now." Take a peek and see whom you recognize, and upload your own photos too.

We can't wait to see you at Reunion!

THE CLASS OF 1998 COMMITTEE

It is essential to stop and reflect upon life as days turn quickly into weeks, weeks into months, and months into years. Our time at Scranton has passed by so quickly. We hope that you have had many opportunities to reflect upon it...

YOUR REUNION

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

Your Class Gift

Reunions are milestones – occasions for you to commemorate your place in Scranton's history, to reflect on what your alma mater means to you, and to renew your ties to this great institution. Reunion celebrations are also a time when classes focus their fund-raising efforts on increased giving in support of undergraduate education. Each year our Reunion campaigns raise increased dollars and participation for The Royal Fund, which supports the core needs of undergraduate education and provides unrestricted dollars for the greatest priorities of the University.

Every gift made to Scranton between June 1, 2007, and May 31, 2008, counts for your reunion and the Scranton Reunion Class Challenges – The Pride, Passion, Promise Awards. Find out more about this friendly competition and make your gift online at

Special thanks to The University of Scranton's Alumni Society for its support of Reunion events. ## The DeNaples Center

Whether you graduated from Scranton 5 or 25 years ago, you will be the first Reunion classes to see and enjoy the new Patrick and Margaret DeNaples Center that has transformed the heart of campus. Many Reunion events will be held in the 118,000-square-foot building, which includes dining facilities, the bookstore, a ballroom, 260-seat theater and fireplace lounge.
