

Golden
Grads
1960
1961
1965
1970
1975
1980
1985
1990
1995
2000
2005

www.scranton.edu/reunion

<PREFIX> <FIRST> <LAST>
<ADD1>
<ADD2>
<ADD3>
<CITY>, <STATE> <ZIP>

YOUR REUNION

Reconnect Return Remember

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

REUNIONS ARE MILESTONES — occasions for you to commemorate your place in Scranton's history, to reflect upon what your alma mater means to you, and to renew your ties to this great institution.

Reunion celebrations are also a time when classes focus their fund-raising efforts on increased giving in support of undergraduate education. Each year our Reunion campaigns raise increased dollars and participation for The Royal Fund, which supports the core needs of undergraduate education and provides unrestricted dollars for the greatest priorities of the University. Every gift made to Scranton between June 1, 2009 and May 31, 2010, counts for your reunion and The Pride, Passion, Promise Reunion Awards.

MAKE YOUR GIFT ONLINE AT: www.scranton.edu/reuniongiving

PRIDE PASSION PROMISE

Experience Our Jesuit Tradition

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

YOUR REUNION

Reconnect Return Remember

JUNE 11-13, 2010

CLASS OF 2005 COMMITTEE

Elizabeth M. Ali
Ann Marissa Ambacher
Elizabeth M. Connolly, Esq.
William J. Dennis
Sameera Desai
Anne D. Flynn
James P. Healy
Christopher J. Holland
Lauren E. Hughes
Lauren J. Mahoney
Christopher J. Mannion
Kristina Mardjokic Brezicha
Joseph W. Mele
Daniel A. Nelson
Christopher S. Potocki
Kristin Reil Perilli
Sara B. Visintainer
Eileen A. Webster
Patrick C. Wherry
Matthew J. Youssef
Lauren E. Zefran

2005 CLASS NOTE

We invite you to join the reunion Facebook page at:
University of Scranton:
Class of 2005 Reunion
to share photos and watch the hype grow!

Five years have passed since we all stood together on May 29, 2005 at graduation. We stood proudly in purple and black, surrounded by people who knew what it meant to “go to Scranton.” It meant friendship, it meant flip-flops and hoodies, it meant sitting on the commons, it meant having a priest living on your floor and explaining to all your high school friends that it wasn’t weird. In Scranton we did it and we did it together.

Almost a decade ago, we drove up Linden with our cars full, petrified of purple people and unsure about what lay ahead. We were one of the largest classes ever to take over the campus and for many of us that meant three to a room; but it also meant more friends, more memories and more laughs. The joy of this weekend will not be hanging out with the close friends that you keep in touch with today. It will be about the hilarity of catching up with the classmates you haven’t talked to since graduation.

As we have grown over the past five years, so has our Alma Mater. Let’s share old memories and reenter the hallowed halls and dorms, where we became who we are today. There is a new student center, a changed commons and a few missing buildings on Mulberry Street. What we are going back for isn’t a recapturing of the past, but an embracement of memories. Some are great, some are unbelievably stupid, but all are 100% Scranton.

The Class of 2005 Committee is working with the Alumni Relations Office to plan a fun-filled weekend for our class. There are many Reunion events to choose from including the opportunity to stay on campus in a townhouse or dorm with your friends. We especially hope everyone will come together for cocktails and a class dinner on Saturday night.

At our Baccalaureate Mass, Father Pilarz said, “Scranton friends show up.” This weekend isn’t just about checking out the old freshman dorm, marveling at which houses on Taylor have not been condemned; it’s also about showing up. During the past five years, we’ve created mini reunions in living rooms, bars, beach houses and probably basements. Now it’s time to bring the celebration back to campus.

The Class of 2005 Committee

“Stay that close, grow even closer. Dance at one another’s weddings, stand as godparents for each other’s kids. As a Jesuit friend of mine is fond of saying, “the conversation will get richer and the jokes will get funnier.” The conversation among Scranton friends will be a consolation for you down all the days ahead. Don’t waste love.”

REV. SCOTT R. PILARZ, S.J.
Class of 2005 Commencement
MAY 29, 2005

Special thanks to The University of Scranton Alumni Society for its support of Reunion events.

To learn more about what your class committee is planning, visit www.scranton.edu/myclasspage