

3. REGIONAL URAM CONFERENCES

To underline the international and universal nature of URAM Research Regional URAM Conferences are organized all over the world. The objective is to let URAM research be related to other cities and countries and involved in different peoples' efforts to find meaning in human existence through their universities, learned societies and daily-life.

1st - 3rd 1985, 1987, 1990 were held in Leuven, Belgium, the 4th 1994 in Budapest, Hungary, 5th 1998 in Herculaneum, Romania, the 6th 2000 Piešťany, Slovakia, 7th 2002 in Nairobi, Kenya and the 8th 2004 in Puna, India,

The Conferences follow the patterns of Biennial Meetings. They are organized by local universities and learned societies in cooperation with the editorial board of the URAM journal.

Regional initiatives are encouraged and welcome.

Papers presented during the regional conferences extend URAM Research to new fields and may be published in the journal and the planned Encyclopedia of Human Ideas on Ultimate Reality and Meaning.
