The William E. Atkisson & William J. Brady, Sr. Scholarship
Established by William J. Brady ’83 and Nancy Atkisson Brady ‘83

2021-2022

The William E. Atkisson & William J. Brady, Sr. Scholarship will be awarded to rising juniors, who are first generation college students and have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities (exclusive of academic leadership.) Examples include, but are not limited to, enduring family hardships or challenges, leadership in community projects or service programs. If a student lives with just one parent, that parent’s educational background determines whether the student is considered first generation. Second preference will be given to students who demonstrate the same need and leadership qualities but are not necessarily first generation students. This award will not be renewed annually.

The William E. Atkisson & William J. Brady, Sr. Scholarship is a need-based scholarship as defined by the Office of Financial Aid.

Applicant must have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities. Examples include, but are not limited to, enduring family hardships or challenges, leadership in community projects or service programs.
