““Not yet determined” status indicates that research to determine whether program(s) meet state requirements is currently underway, or that the state/territory does not have clear published professional licensure requirements for the program of study.
“Not Applicable” determination indicates that there do not appear to be equivalent licensing requirements/bodies in that state/territory for the program of study. Contact academic program contact for additional details regarding state(s) of interest. Students are responsible for reviewing regulations and requirements for any state or territory in which they are interested in seeking employment.
