

THE UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON
A JESUIT UNIVERSITY

Dear Graduate Student:

The University of Scranton is calling for applicants to serve on the Graduate Student Association. The GSA represents the interests and needs of the graduate student population. The GSA will meet at least monthly with the various college-specific representatives and will meet (at least once a semester) with respective College Deans. Students interested in serving in one of the following vacant positions should submit the attached application, cover letter and resume no later than Wednesday, October 24th by 12midnight EST at amy.driscollmcnulty@scranton.edu.

The Graduate Student Association is made up of 9 student representatives. The number of representatives available is proportionate to the enrollment in each of the respective Colleges and considers both on-campus and on-line programs. The available positions include:

College of Arts and Sciences – 1 on-campus program seat

Kania School of Management – 1 on-campus program seat; 1 on-line program seat

Panuska College of Professional Studies – 2 on-campus program seats; 1 on-line program seat
