Intercession Hours of Operation

During Intercession, several services on our campus maintain different hours than they do during the Fall and Spring semesters. Below you will find a link to the list of offices/services that students may use during Intercession, along with their hours, locations, and contact information.

Interession 2020 Hours of Operation

Please note that the hours listed in the attached document are subject to change.

University police personnel are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and can be reached at 570-941-7777 (emergency) or 570-941-7888 (non-emergency).

Important Dates

- Interession Classes Begin (Friday, January 3)
- Last Day to Request Credit/No Credit Option (Monday, January 6)
 - Junior and Senior students with at least a 2.67 GPA may, after filling out this form and receiving the approval of their college dean's office, take certain courses on a "pass/fail-like" grading scale.
 - Credit/No Credit courses count toward the accumulated credit hours for one's degree but are not included in one's GPA calculation.
 - Only courses used to fulfill free elective and free cognate requirements can be taken on a credit/no credit basis.
- Last Day 100% Tuition Refund (Tuesday, January 7)
 - Students who withdraw from a single course or all of their courses can request a full-tuition refund from the Bursar's Office (St. Thomas Hall, Room 103).
- Last Day 50% Tuition Refund (Wednesday, January 8)
 - Students who withdraw from a single course or all of their courses can request a half-tuition refund from the Bursar's Office (St. Thomas Hall, Room 103).
- Last Day to Drop an Interession Class with No Grade (Wednesday, January 8)
 - Students may, with the permission of their respective Academic Advising Centers, drop a course without receiving a grade for that course.
 - Courses dropped prior to this deadline do not appear on one's transcript; it is as if one never registered for ("attempted") the dropped course.
- Last Day to Elect Audit Option (Friday, January 10)
 - Students may take a course without receiving credit for that course.
 - Audited courses do not count toward a student's degree requirements nor do they count toward a student's GPA.

- To be and remain eligible for the audit grade option, students must:
 - Be passing the course when they elect to audit it
 - Continue attending the course after electing the audit grade option
- No Classes (Monday, January 20)
- Last Day to Withdraw with "W" Grade (Tuesday, January 21)
 - Students may withdraw from a course after the course drop deadline.
 - Students who withdraw receive a "W" on their transcripts.
 - Student interested in withdrawing from a course must have this form signed by the course's instructor and the student's college dean.
 - Students must submit the completed form to the Registrar's Office no later than the above deadline.
- Final Intercession Exams (Tuesday, January 28)

Involvement and Job Opportunities

- Student Development Officer
 - Contact alumni, parents, and friends by phone to ask for donations to the University and establish relationships with the extended Scranton community.
 - $9.25 per hour (paid biweekly)
 - For more information, please visit University Advancement here.

For additional federal and university work study opportunities during Intercession, please contact the Financial Aid Office by phone (570-941-7701) or email.
