Resource Spotlight

Campus Ministries | Jane Kopas Women's Center

Campus Ministries will hold its annual Finals Week Open House in DeNaples 200 from Monday, December 9 through Thursday, December 12.

Students are encouraged either to take a study break in or bring final exam study materials to the office anytime from 8:00pm until the building closes (around 11:30pm) on these days.

Snacks and group study spaces will be available for ALL students.

CAMPUS MINISTRIES

Loving God, be with me now as I prepare for my final exams and assignments.

Thank you for the many talents and gifts you have given me, and for the opportunity to receive the gift of an education. Your love surpasses all fear and so I give you the anxiety I feel right now. I surrender all my worries to you.

Clear my mind. Calm my heart. Still my spirit.

Relax my being that I may always glorify you in everything I write, speak and do. Help me to remember all that I have studied, to express it clearly, and to answer questions the very best I can.

Holy Spirit, be with me this finals week — and always.

Amen.

(Prayer courtesy of Dr. Helen Wolf, Director of Campus Ministries)

The Jane Kopas Women's Center will hold a Self-Care Kit Workshop in DeNaples 205F between 5:00pm and 6:00pm on Wednesday, December 4.

Students can create stress-reducing kits containing stress balls, essential oils, and coloring sheets, while taking a moment to pause and refresh!

The Jane Kopas Women's Center will hold its annual Clothing Swap in DeNaples 214 between 5:00pm and 8:00pm on Wednesday, December 4.

Take a study break and browse new-to-you items and take what you'd like - no strings attached! Attendees will be entered into a raffle to win a prize basket of sustainable laundry products and will learn about ecofeminism!

First-Gen Student Spotlight

*THRIVE Student Coordinators | Final Exam
Tips*

*Nathalie Cespedes ('21) and Caitlin
Gallagher ('21) share their top ten tips for Final Exams.*

Tip 1: Get Enough Sleep

Pulling all-nighters may be tempting, but not getting enough sleep can be detrimental to your exam performance. Lack of sleep can also make you more likely to get sick, which is the last thing you need during final exams!

Tip 2: Check Exam Times

This might seem unnecessary, but when you're taking many exams in the same week, you might easily confuse the times. Write your exam times (and locations!) on a sticky note, and place it where you'll see it (e.g., refrigerator, computer).

Tip 3: Choose the Right Study Space

Study in an environment similar to the one in which you'll take your exams. Choose a quiet, comfortable space, and minimize distractions.

Tip 4: Take Study Breaks

Stop studying every 25 to 30 minutes. Take a walk, grab a snack, or do something that completely takes your mind off of your work for at least 15 minutes. Breaks also serve as a reward for working hard!

Tip 5: Attend Review Sessions

These sessions can give you insight into the format of the exam and the types of questions you'll be asked. In addition to asking your own questions, you can hear the questions that your peers have.

Tip 6: Manage your Time

Create a study schedule to keep track of which classes you need to prioritize. Spacing out your studying increases your retention, so avoid cramming whenever possible.

Tip 7: Stay Positive

Remember that you are here for a reason and that you are capable of excelling on your exams. Winter Break is right around the corner, and you will finally have a chance to relax soon!

Nathalie Cespedes ('21) and Caitlin Gallagher ('21) serve as the THRIVE Student Coordinators (TSCs). If you have any questions or concerns about being a first-gen student on our campus, feel free to contact them here.

Tip 8: Form an Effective Study Group

Study groups can help you or hurt you, depending on how focused you are. Learn most of the material by yourself and then check your understanding by explaining concepts to other members of the group.

Tip 9: Limit Distractions

Disconnect yourself from your phone, social media, and Netflix. Set your phone to "do not disturb" or airplane mode, while studying, and reward yourself with phone breaks after 25 - 30 minutes of productivity.

Tip 10: Pace Yourself

Stay focused, but try not to overwork yourself. If find yourself unable focus on one subject any more, try studying for a different course. Creating a study schedule that allows you time for self-care will help with this!
