Welcome Class of 2022!

Dear Member of the Class of 2022,

My name is Robert McGowan, and I currently serve as the Program Coordinator for THRIVE, a new initiative designed to celebrate and support those of you who identify as first-generation college students. On behalf of my colleagues in the Center for Student Engagement, I wanted to welcome you back to the University of Scranton!

In addition to welcoming you back, I wanted to take a moment to share some information regarding the THRIVE program and what it means to be a first-generation college student at Scranton.

The THRIVE Program

The THRIVE Program is a new initiative designed to both celebrate and support first-generation students (those whose parents did not attend college or complete a college degree) throughout their time at the University of Scranton.

THR1VE Events

The THR1VE Program hosts bimonthly programs designed to provide first-gen students with information on a variety of topics, including:

- Financial Wellness
- Academic Planning
- Internship Selection
- Stress Management

THR1VE Experiences

Our office offers several co-curricular experiences for first-gen students during the Fall Semester, including:

- Scranton Emerging Leaders Program (SEL, a semester-long leadership development course)
- The IGNITE Leadership Conference (a one-day event for beginning and advanced leaders to augment their knowledge of various topics)

These experiences are designed to provide you with the skills you'll need to continue to succeed on campus, while allowing you to meet fellow first-gen students, faculty, and staff!

Getting Involved

Students interested in the THRIVE Program may participate by:

- Attending biweekly programs
- Registering for IGNITE and SEL
- Joining our Advisory Board
- Applying for a Student Coordinator Position

Staying in the Loop
