

Support Person List
 2021-2022

Students who are complainants or accused students in the University’s discipline process have the right to be assisted by a support person. A support person is a member of the University community, most frequently a full-time faculty or staff member, who is neither an attorney nor a family member and who assists a student by providing support throughout the student conduct process. The support person may help a student understand the various aspects of the Student Code of Conduct, including but not limited to, students’ rights and responsibilities, the Educational Conference meeting or Formal Hearing, and/or the appeal process.

As explained in “Article IV: Rights and Resources” of the Student Code of Conduct, the role of a support person is to assist a student by providing support throughout the student conduct process. Although a support person cannot represent a student and therefore has a non-speaking role during the investigative meetings, Educational Conference, or Formal Hearing a support person may:

1. Assist the student in understanding the process in response to a charge of the Student Code of Conduct;
2. Assist the student in understanding one’s rights and responsibilities as a participant in the Student Conduct process;
3. Assist by accompanying the student to any meeting with a Conduct Officer, University Review Board and/or Appellate Board, including the Educational Conference and Formal Hearings;
4. Assist the student in understanding the appeal process, when applicable; and
5. As appropriate, foster a student’s personal growth through reflection and discernment of one’s behavior/decisions in light of University standards and values.

While students are permitted to have as their support person almost any member of the University community, the following faculty and staff members have volunteered to serve as support persons as their schedules permit. They have been trained in the University’s student discipline process.

It is the student’s responsibility to make contact with and secure a support person. Similarly, it is the student’s responsibility to let his/her support person know how he/she would like the support person to assist and provide support. Note that failure to obtain a support person is not grounds for an appeal.
