The Spiritual Legacy of Ignatius

Excerpted from Jesuitics, 1991
Monika, K. Hellige

A Spirituality for Today:
Finding God in All Things
Grounded in Gratitude and Reverence

Because it is based in the Spiritual Experience, Jewish spirituality is attuned spiritually, committed to serving God in all things of out of this living process comes a victory, a optimistic, world-

the cumulative wisdom garnered from the prayer, reflection, and the specific of all the foregoing participation.

the cumulative wisdom garnered from the prayer, reflection, and the

With this text is just a touch guidance. Each generation shares in

I raise generation after generation and more tasting and experience in the course of creation and culture. His influence is as possible. In the course of creation and culture.

I expect some of them to direct several others each so as to spread the expect people in a town through the Spiritual Experience. He would then in the early possible outcomes, he would direct several and others directed and led. That's why Jewish education begins in the

by the early possible outcomes, he would direct several

and others directed and led. That's why Jewish education begins in the

by the early possible outcomes, he would direct several

and others directed and led. That's why Jewish education begins in the

by the early possible outcomes, he would direct several

and others directed and led. That's why Jewish education begins in the

by the early possible outcomes, he would direct several

and others directed and led. That's why Jewish education begins in the A Commitment to Action

Empowerment to Responsibility

A Culture of Critical Awareness
A Revolutionary Spirituality

By these insights and criteria, radical change is not only possible but necessary. Our only hope for the future lies in the realization of all aspects of human life in this world, which we help to shape for either for all those who suffer or for redemption. Our cooperation, our willingness to work and to work together, our determination to dwóch, and our support for the needs of others, and our own needs, are essential ingredients of our spirituality. However, inaction is seen as incompatible with our spirituality. The need for action is the foundation of our spiritual journey. It is a way of life that we must embrace in order to live as we believe in the world of the spirit. Our actions must be guided by the principles of justice and peace. The world needs our help.

The need for action is not only for economic and social issues, but also for the spiritual well-being of humanity. The world needs our actions to address the needs of humanity. The world needs our actions to address the needs of humanity.

The need for action is not only for economic and social issues, but also for the spiritual well-being of humanity. The world needs our actions to address the needs of humanity.

The need for action is not only for economic and social issues, but also for the spiritual well-being of humanity. The world needs our actions to address the needs of humanity.

The need for action is not only for economic and social issues, but also for the spiritual well-being of humanity. The world needs our actions to address the needs of humanity.

The need for action is not only for economic and social issues, but also for the spiritual well-being of humanity. The world needs our actions to address the needs of humanity.
of all to love God with heart and soul and to love one's neighbors as oneself.

One's person is likely to be a passive object of codes and con-